

Model Outlines for Text Analysis

Outline #1

- Thesis: The author's argument is developed through the author's use of evidence, rhetorical language, and structure.
 - Paragraph #1 – Evidence to support the claim
 - Quote/s as support:
 - Evidence
 - Evaluation of evidence
 - Paragraph #2 – Use of rhetoric to develop claim
 - Quote/s as support:
 - Analyze two rhetorical elements within the passage.
 - Why are they used and is it effective?
 - Paragraph #3 - Structure
 - Analysis of the way the author structures his/her piece to establish the claim.
 - How does this structure help establish the tone?
 - Why is it important?

Outline #2 – (Use if author makes 3 MAIN POINTS)

- Thesis: The author builds his argument by explaining how “a”, “b”, and “c” support the “claim.”
 - Paragraph #1 – point #1
 - Evidence
 - Rhetorical Device
 - Quote
 - Does the author use effectively?
 - Paragraph #2 – point #2 (Same as above)
 - Paragraph #3 – Point #3 (Same as above)

Outline #3 (Use if clear PROGRESSION) *Careful not to plot summarize

- Thesis: The author builds his argument through the logos
 - Paragraph #1 – first part of the essay
 - Author's supporting claim
 - Evidence
 - Rhetorical
 - Quote
 - Paragraph #2 and #3 – same support as above and how does the argument build

Outline #4 (Use if author's STYLE is prominent)

- Intro- Introduce topic and article. Provide claim. Thesis: The author's argument is developed through the use of pathos, statistics, and other rhetorical devices.
 - Body Paragraph #1 - Rhetorical Device #1
 - Explanation

Model Outlines for Text Analysis

- Quote
- Analysis
- How develops argument
- Body Paragraph #2 and #3– Rhetorical Device #2, #3 (Same as above)